

Why join AMET?

AMET, a non-profit organization, supports migrant educators of Texas to ensure that every migrant student in Texas has access to a quality education. Through AMET, we empower individuals at the national, state, and local levels as they equip each child with the skills and resources necessary to be successful.

Are you aware that:

- ◆ Approximately 100,000 Texas students and their families move in search of agricultural or fishing work each year?
- ◆ 48 states across the country receive Texas migrant students in their schools?
- ◆ No other state uses the same Texas Essential Knowledge and Skills (TEKS) based curriculum that Texas migrant students use in their home-based school?
- ◆ Children as young as 12 years of age have been reported to work in the fields during the summer months?
- ◆ The greatest obstacle that Texas migrant students face is the interruption of their schooling?

“Our migrant children...
They are our only hope.
Like seedlings, they have been sown in our schools. It is our wish they blossom into harvests of hope.”
